IF CAR IS GOOD KEEP IT - - AND IN GOOD CONDITION

Enough New Cars To Meet Demand Won't Be Available For Several Years

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT - If your present automobile is in good condition and you expect to need a car for the next three years you will not go far wrong in keeping it-and keeping it in good condition.

That's the answer the Automotive Editor is making to inquiries concerning the advisability of selling now or waiting until the end of the war removes all controls on production and prices.

The inquiries invariably raise the question, "Will used car prices go down sharply when the new cars start coming out-"

I do not profess to know whether used car prices, now under a strict OPA ceiling, will go up or down when the controls are removed. I do know, however, that it will be two and a half to three years after production is resumed before the average individual without some priority will be able to get prompt delivery on a new car.

Meet Clarinda Cow, pin-up girl of Uncle Sam's dairy farmers! This soulful-eved source of health and wealth, along with some 26 million of her bovine sisters, will produce over 1201/2 billion pounds of milk this year - if the hopes of the War Food Administration are realized.

Milk gets top billing from millions of Americans, Since whole milk contains more of the food elements essential to a balanced diet than any other single food, says WFA, it plays a big role in meeting wartime nutritional problems.

Last year U.S. civilians had increased their per capita milk drinking 20 percent over the pre-war average, and 1945 demands are continuing large. Big increases are seen in requirements for dairy products for the armed forces. Military and allied utilization of milk and milk products is now at the rate of 20 billion pounds a year. Ample feed is available for an all-out milk production job in 1945, according to WFA. Plans have been announced also for continuation of production pay-ments through the Agricultural Adjustment Agency in 1945. Farmers' main handicaps will be manpower deficien-cies and a higher than normal percent-age of heifers in milking herds, reports show. Dairy production has been maintained at about 13 percent above the pre-war level for the past three years. An increase in average production per cow of about 40 pounds of milk is sought, in anticipation of only a small expansion in the cow population dur-

LIGHT'S DAIRY 4-H Clubs CHANGES HANDS HERE FRIDAY

New Owners Have Had Many Years of Experience in Dairy Work

Light's Dairy, one of the leading dairies of the city, changed hands Friday, when F. C. Light, who had operated a dairy in Washington C. H. since 1934, disposed of his entire dairy business to Edward F. Moser and Halbert H. Myer.

Light will devote his entire attention to raising pure bred Jersey cattle, being associated with Richard Willis in the business, and the two men already have a herd of 22 choice blooded Jerseys, and sold one recently for $1300.

The Light Dairy has been located on Leesburg Avenue since He Had Been 'Missing in August 14, 1939, and is modernly equipped.

The new owners announced that there would be no change in and that every effort will be made to all customers.

Sanford Bennett, regional WLB official, declared the dispute involving overtime pay would be certified to the national WLB in Washington.

Officials of the CIO-United Steelworkers of America were summoned to a hearing before the WLB today to show cause why maintenance men of the Youngseight-day walkout.

A protest by 40 maintenance men against revised work schedules caused by cutbacks has forced approximately 2,000 steelmakers into idleness for more than a week, the WLB reported. Company spokesmen estimated the walkout caused a loss of 2,500 tons of steel production daily.
